Volunteer News

Our volunteers are hungry!

We are blessed by volunteer interest from our four towns—Cornelius, Davidson, Huntersville and Mooresville. We try to honor the donation of time and energy made by these loyal volunteers by offering true southern hospitality—in the form of food.

If you or your group would like to be a Food Volunteer, please contact Cathy Petriano, Volunteer Coordinator, at cathy@ourtownshabitat.org or call 704-896-8957, Ext. 1108. Here is a way to help:

Saturday Work-Day Snacks – Food volunteers provide a healthy snack of fruit, crackers/cheese or granola bars on a Saturday Work Day. The construction volunteers work from 8 a.m. until 3 p.m. and are ready for a break by 10 a.m. Snacks can be delivered to the work site at break time or delivered to the OTHFH office on Friday.

Special thanks to our food volunteers for providing snacks or meals for our Collegiate Challenge groups. Your generosity is greatly appreciated.

Creative ways to help

Donate your credit-card reward points

What are you going to do with your credit-card reward points? This is a new concept for most of us. Many, but not all, credit card companies are set up to allow you to make a gift of your reward points to Our Towns Habitat.

Gifting your points can have a large impact. Most people we talked to, even people who worked at the credit-card companies, did not know this kind of giving is available.

Our Towns Habitat can redeem your donated points at many retail shops, like Home Depot, Sears, Lands End, K-mart, etc., or Our Towns can redeem the points for cash. For example, American Express will send $10 for every 1,000 points.

Below are two examples that we found. If you don't have one of these cards, go to your credit card company's Web site, type in "donate reward points" in a search box or contact the credit card company directly.

American Express – Go to www.americanexpress.com/donate, click "Donate now," type in Our Towns Habitat and the Web site will walk you through the rest of the process.

Capital One Credit Card – Go to www.capitalone.com/give, type in Our Towns Habitat in the "Find a Charity" box, click on Donate Now, and the Web site will walk you through the rest. ■

A note from the executive director

Finding the “perfect” families

Our Towns’ Family Selection Committee has the responsibility to choose families to own Habitat for Humanity houses—one of the most difficult and challenging aspects of this ministry. You may ask, “How can ideal families be chosen?”

Of course, we must follow the regulations of Equal Housing Opportunity, but it is much more than that. As Habitat founder Millard Fuller said, “A wise, thoughtful process is an absolute prerequisite to choosing the right families.” There is no substitute for wisdom.

Terry Laney

Here’s how the process works: First, eligible families are living in inadequate or substandard conditions, such as overcrowding or simply deplorable physical conditions (and yes, we do have this in the Lake Norman area).

Other factors would be living in a high crime area or spending more than 30 percent of their income on rent and utilities. Many of our families are paying more than 50 percent of their income on housing.

Eligible families have incomes that are too low to enable them to secure conventional financing from a bank or other traditional lending institution, but are sufficient for them to make the monthly payments required on the no-profit, no-interest Habitat mortgage.

Finally, families must be willing to fulfill the requirements of Habitat homeownership by putting in mandatory “sweat-equity” hours in “Families with great needs are in great abundance. We mustn’t be afraid of such families, even those with big problems.” -Millard Fuller building their own houses and other Habitat houses.

So how to choose? As prayer can bring wisdom, fervent and continuous prayer is required by those responsible for choosing Habitat families.

But a reality check is in order. For example, many families with a housing problem have other problems, too. Family Selection committee members encounter single parents, illiteracy, drug abuse, unemployment and other such problems among applicants. In reality, “perfect families” do not exist!

Two years ago, our Family Selection Committee was struggling, looking for truly “ideal” families. They wanted all of our families to be successful. Ideally, it would be wonderful to be able to say that we have been 100 percent successful. But fear of failure must not paralyze us from taking risks. Our primary motivating factors must be faith and love.

Selections are made in faith. Families with great needs are in great abundance. We mustn’t be afraid of such families, even those with big problems. People can change and many—but not all—do change in response to love and expressions of confidence in them. And a safe, affordable home.

Our Family Selection Committee continues to search for “right” families for us to build with, but knows that we’ll never find perfect families. What we will find are families that are loved by God.
